

Communities That Care

Key Leader Orientation

Benefits and Results

Participant's Guide

Module 4

Module 4 Table of Contents

Page

Module 4	4—3
Phase Two: Organizing, Introducing, Involving	4—4
Module 4 goal	4—5
Objectives	4—6
Process evaluations.....	4—7
Benefits of the Communities That Care system	4—8
.....	4—9
.....	4—10
Sample results	4—11
Phase Two: Organizing, Introducing, Involving	4—12

Module 4

Communities That Care

Benefits and Results

Slide 4-1

Notes

Module 4

Slide 4-2

Notes

Module 4 goal

Provide an overview of the benefits and results of the Communities That Care system.

Communities That Care

Slide 4-3

Notes

Slide 4-4

Objectives

Communities That Care

1. Discuss the methods used to evaluate the Communities That Care system.
2. Describe the benefits and results of the Communities That Care system.

Notes

Process evaluations

Communities That Care

- Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (1996, 1997)
- United States General Accounting Office (1996)
- Jenson, Hartman & Smith (1997)
- Harachi, Ayers, Hawkins, Catalano & Cushing (1996, 1998)
- Arthur, Ayers, Graham & Hawkins (in press)

Slide 4-5

Notes

Slide 4-6

Benefits of the Communities That Care system

Communities That Care

- Shared vision and community norms
- Common language
- Coordinated data collection and analysis
- Integrated planning processes

Jordan et al., 1997; U.S. General Accounting Office, 1996;
Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, 1998; 1999

Notes

Benefits of the Communities That Care system

Increased:

- Funding
- Collaboration among agencies
- Accountability
- Use of tested, effective programs
- Long-range, strategic focus
- Community involvement

Jensen et al., 1997; U.S. General Accounting Office, 1996;
Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, 1996, 1997

Slide 4-7

Notes

Slide 4-8

Benefits of the Communities That Care system

Communities That Care

Decreased:

- "Turf" conflict
- Duplication or fragmentation of resources
- "Problem du jour" approach
- Use of untested or proven ineffective programs
- Community disorganization

Jordan et al., 1997; U.S. General Accounting Office, 1996;
Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, 1998; 1999

Notes

Sample results

Communities That Care

Ames, IA	Improved cognitive skills
East Prairie, MO	Improved parenting skills, family relations, community relations
Montgomery County, MD	72% decrease in suspensions; 30% decrease in school problems
Nekoosa, WI	Decrease in student detentions, academic failure, truancy
Lansing, MI	Decrease in fights, suspension; Increased feelings of safety at school
Port Angeles, WA	65% decrease in weapons charges; 45% decrease in burglary, 29% decrease in drug offenses; 27% decrease in assault charges; 18% decrease in larceny

Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, 1995, 1997

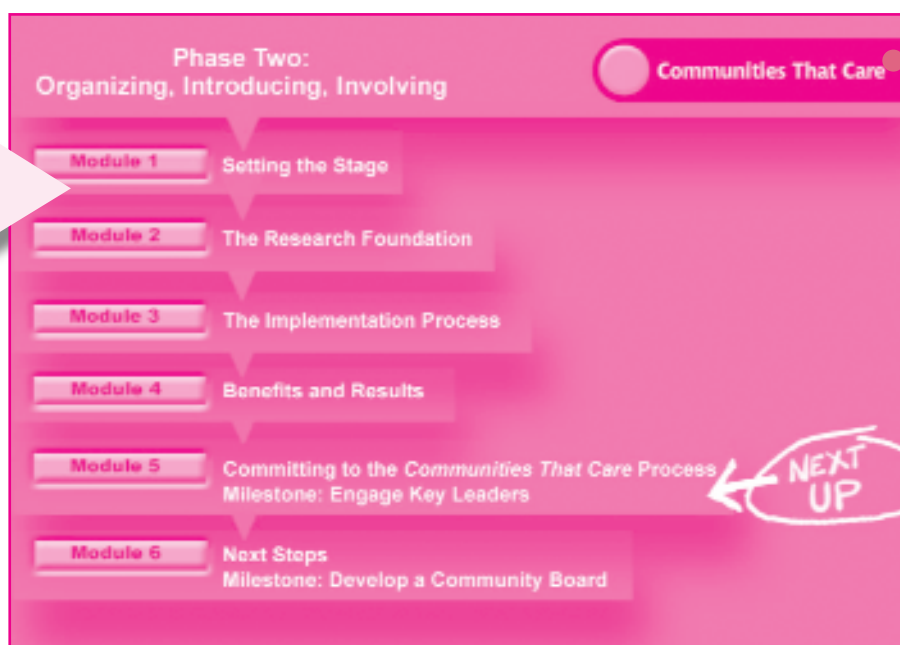

Slide 4-9

Notes

Module 4

Slide 4-10

Notes